First Man to Ship Bait to Petersburg.

NO DECISION IN TAFT CASE

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
PETERSBURG, VA., September 27.—The first bale of the season of the new crop of Virginia cotton has been shipped to Martin & Sons, well-known commission merchants of this city, by Dr. R. L. Powell, of Brunswick county, who for many years has been first in the market with new cotton.

The Board of Police Commissioners at a meeting last night elected Thomas M. Evans substitute police officer to fill the vacancy caused by the promotion of Officer Ernest Payne to a regular patrolman.

M. S. Matthews has been arrested here on the charge of jumping a board bill at Chester, and will be turned over to the Chesterfield county authorities.

Judge Mullen, of the Hastings Court, has not yet rendered his decision in the matter of dissolving the injunctions restraining the negro preacher Tarrt from holding services at the church and prohibiting the holding of religious meetings there, until the trouble is finally adjusted.

The enlargement of the Chesterfield Manufacturing Company's water-power canal at Swift Creek has been completed, and in addition to the cotton mills is to be made.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
LEXINGTON, VA., September 27.—The skeleton of General Robert E. Lee's famous warhorse, "Traveller," has been mounted and will be set up at Washington and Lee University. The bones were preserved at Washington and Lee until a few months ago, when they were sent to Rochester, N. Y., to be mounted, the expense to be defrayed by Mr. Joseph Bryan, of Richmond. The skeleton of the horse, one of the most noted of all the great warhorses of history. He was a fine specimen of the grey horse stock, and was a great favorite with his master, General Lee. He came into the possession of General Lee early in 1862. At first he was used as an extra horse, but his indomitable pluck and splendid qualities appealed to General Lee that he was used almost constantly. He bore his distinguished master from Appomattox to Richmond after the surrender.

SKIN TROUBLE LIKE SMALL-POX

Little Pimples Spread Until Body Was Like Pounded Beef—Was in Fear of Pest House as He Could Get No Relief—But He

FOUND PERMANENT CURE IN CUTICURA REMEDIES

"I have waited two years before writing what I am now going to, for I wanted to see if my skin trouble would return. Two years ago I was in Marnard, Mass., and while working I noticed a few little pimples coming on my face and body. These little pimples kept growing all the time, and I was like a piece of well-pounded beef-steak. I went to three doctors, but none could tell me what it was. I went to the hospital in Mar. and they failed there, too. Then I went to Lawrence, and there bought the Cuticura Remedies, and to my surprise, I cured myself in about a week, and to-day I am well, my face is clear, and only for the Cuticura Remedies I should have been in the pest house, for the doctor thought it was small-pox. I solemnly swear that the above statement is true. Ernest E. Racine, 467 Canal St., Lawrence, Mass., Jan. 7, 1907."
